

Biographical Information
for
Bryan Newland, President
Bay Mills Indian Community

Bryan Newland is the President/Chairperson of the Bay Mills Indian Community Executive Council. Bryan was elected to a two-year term of office in November 2017. As part of his duties as the President of the Bay Mills Indian Community, Bryan also serves on the Board of the Chippewa Ottawa Resource Authority (“CORA”), which is a consortium of five federally recognized Indian tribes that were party to the 1836 Treaty of Washington.

Prior to serving as President, Bryan Newland served as the Chief Judge of the Bay Mills Indian Community Tribal Court. From 2009 through 2012, Bryan was a policy advisor to the Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Indian Affairs.

Bryan Newland earned a law degree from the Michigan State University College of Law in 2007; and, prior to that, earned a BA from Michigan State University’s James Madison College in 2003.